

CORNELL OVERWHELMED PENN. ELEVEN

Philadelphia, Nov. 24.—Cornell's big Red team came out of a bit of a slump this afternoon on Franklin Field and defeated Pennsylvania 14 to 0. The Red team, who had not scored the Red and Blue goal line since 1915, overcame the Pennsylvania eleven, scoring six touchdowns. Hanson scored one of his five touchdowns on a kick from the line. The Red team's goal line was not crossed by the Pennsylvania eleven, scoring six touchdowns. Only one of the Red and Blue team's touchdowns was scored by a player.

The game was played in a driving rain. To Eddie Kaw, left halfback on Cornell's unbeaten team, goes the bulk of the glory for the victory. Five times he crossed Pennsylvania's goal line, and time and again made dashing runs through the whole Quaker team. Lechner, who played fullback, and Ramsey, Kaw's running mate, contributed to the team work that made Kaw's long runs possible.

The heavy rain made the field a marsh. The light Pennsylvania backs were unable to get started, and were frequently thrown for losses which more than offset the few yards they gained from scrimmage. Pennsylvania made but three first downs.

The ball was handled cleanly by both teams, despite a soggy field and a driving rain storm in the last period. The Green team managed to stop "Red" Robinson at quarterback on the offense, although the work of the plucky Center leader was an outstanding feature of the contest, his scoring one touchdown and kicking the three goals.

People Condemn Congress
Reliable reports from various parts of the country are to the effect that President Harding and his Administration are stronger today than when they took office. The people have confidence in this Administration and there is no sign of it weakening. It also may be stated that this same feeling of confidence does not fully apply to the legislative branch of the Government, and considerable criticism of the legislature, but, on the contrary, there is principally to the delay in enacting tax and tariff legislation, for which the extra session was called.
